ARTICLE XX
Rules of Order

Section 1. On motion the regular order of business may be suspended by two-thirds vote of the meeting at any time to dispose of any urgent business.

Section 2. All resolutions and resignations shall be submitted in writing if so requested by the Secretary.

Section 3. Any conversation by whispering or otherwise which is calculated to disturb a member while speaking or hinder the transaction of business shall be deemed a violation of order.

Section 4. All questions of a parliamentary nature not provided for in these rules shall be decided by Roberts' Rules of Order.

Section 5. A motion to be entertained by the Presiding Officer must be seconded and the mover as well as the seconder must rise to be recognized by the chair. It shall be reduced to writing at the request of the Secretary.

Section 6. In presenting a motion a brief statement of its object may be made but no discussion of its merits shall be admitted until the question is stated by the chair.

Section 7. Any member having made a motion can withdraw it by consent of its seconder but a motion once debated cannot be withdrawn except by unanimous consent.

Section 8. A motion to amend an amendment shall be in order but no motion to amend an amendment to an amendment shall be permitted.

Section 9. Any member may call for the division of a question where the sense will admit thereof.

Section 10. A motion shall not be subject to debate until it has been stated by the Chair.

Section 11. When a member wishes the floor, he shall rise and respectfully address the Chair and, if recognized by the Chair, he shall be entitled to the floor.

Section 12. If two or more members rise to speak at the same time, the Chair shall decide which is entitled to the floor.

Section 13. Each member, when speaking, shall confine himself to the question under debate and avoid all personal and indecorous language.

Section 14. No member shall interrupt another while speaking, except to a point of order, and he shall definitely state the point, and the Chair shall decide the same without debate.

Section 15. If a member while speaking, be called to order, he shall take his seat until the point of order is decided, when, if decided in order, he may proceed.

Section 16. If any member shall feel himself aggrieved by the decision of the Chair, he may appeal to the Local from the decision.

Section 17. When an appeal is made from the decision of the Chair, said appeal shall be stated by the Chairman to the meeting in these words: "Shall the decision of the Chair be sustained as the decision of the meeting." The member will then have the right to state the grounds of appeal, and the chair will give the reason for this decision; thereupon the Local will proceed to vote on the appeal without further debate.

Section 18. No member shall speak more than once on the same subject until all members desiring the floor shall have spoken, nor more than twice without consent, nor for more than five (5) minutes without permission from the Chair.

Section 19. The Presiding Officer shall not speak on any subject except points of order and appeals from the decision of the Chair. He shall have a vote on the question before the meeting only in the event of a tie vote.

Section 20. When a question is before the meeting no motion shall be in order except:

- 1) To Adjourn.
- 2) To lay on the table.
- 3) For the previous question.
- 4) To postpone to a given time.
- 5) To refer or to commit.
- 6) To amend.

And these several motions shall have precedence in the order herein arranged.

Section 21. The following are not debatable

- 1) To Adjourn.
- 2) To lay on the table.
- 3) To read a document or paper.

Section 22. When a previous question is moved and seconded it shall be put in this form: "Shall the main question now be put?" If this is carried, all further motions, amendments, and debates shall be excluded and the question put without delay.

Section 23. If a motion has been amended the question on the amendment shall be put first. If more than one amendment has been offered the question shall be put as follows:

- 1) Amendment to the amendment.
- 2) Amendment
- 3) Original Proposition

Section 24. When a question is postponed indefinitely it shall not come up again except by unanimous consent.

Section 25. A motion to adjourn shall always be in order except:

- 1) When a motion is before the house.
- 2) When a member has the floor.
- 3) When the members are voting.
- 4) When it has been decided to take the previous question.
- 5) When the delegates from affiliated Unions desire to make a report.

Section 26. Before putting a question to vote the Presiding Officer shall ask: "Is the Local ready for the question?" Then it shall be opened for debate. If no member rises to speak, the Presiding Officer shall then put the question, and after the vote is taken shall immediately announce the results.

Section 27. When the Presiding Officer has commenced taking a vote no further debate or remarks shall be allowed, unless a mistake had been made in which case the mistake shall be rectified, and the Presiding Officer shall recommence taking the vote.

Section 28. Before the Presiding Officer declares the vote on a question, any member may ask for a division of the house and the Chair is duty bound to comply with the request, and a standing vote shall be taken.

Section 29. Every member present shall vote on all questions before the Local, unless personally interested or excused by the Local.

Section 30. When a question has been decided, it can be reconsidered only at the same meeting night or on the next regular meeting night.

Section 31. A motion to reconsider must be made and seconded by two members who voted with the majority.

Section 32. Roll call shall be granted upon the request of fifteen (15) members.
